

PEACE THOUGHTS

'A Christian who withdraws into themselves, hiding all that the Lord has given them, is not a Christian!
'Be generous with your God-given talents for the good of others, the Church and our world.'
'Do not bury your talents, those gifts that God has given you!
Do not be afraid to dream of great things!
Put them at the service of the Gospel,
with creativity and boundless charity.'
Pope Francis

'If a person is called to be a street sweeper, they should sweep streets even as Michelangelo painted, or Beethoven composed music, or Shakespeare wrote poetry. They should sweep streets so well that all the hosts of heaven and earth will pause to say, here lived a great street sweeper who did the job well.'

'If you can't fly then run, if you can't run then walk, if you can't walk then crawl, but whatever you do, you have to keep moving forward!'

'Show me how to take who I am, who I want to be, and what I can do, and use it for a purpose greater than myself.'

GOSPEL THOUGHTS Matt 25: 14-30

What are you best at? It is important to focus on what you are good at. To occasionally sit still and simply know you are good at this or that. It can be an act of gratitude to God who made you.

It is as if God has given us a start so we can be worthwhile to other people around us.

The gospel story seems to be encouraging us to get on with being talented among each other. It is one way of knowing God when we use our skills to benefit those we deal with. The Creator is clever. We are the evidence when we act generously with personality and experience. We are called to delight in that ability and grow and develop with yet more talents for others.

Celebrate your abilities and seek more, says Jesus.
