

PEACE THOUGHTS

Pope Francis tells us:

'Saints are not superhuman. They are people who love God with all their hearts and who share this love with others.'
The Catholic Worker social activist, Dorothy Day, was such a person.
Here are some of her wise words.

'I have long since come to believe that people never mean half of what they say, and that it is best to disregard their talk and judge only their actions.'

'The Gospel takes away our right forever, to discriminate between the deserving and the undeserving poor.'

'We must talk about poverty, because people insulated by their own comfort lose sight of it.'

'Charity is only as warm as those who administer it.'

'I really only love God as much as I love the person I love the least.'
'The only thing we can do about people is to love them.'
'The final word is love.'

GOSPEL THOUGHTS Matt 5: 1-12

"Holy, holy, holy...." is the happy, raucous song that fills heaven. All our family and friends are causing the chorus to swell with joy. Beyond those familiar to us, all those who ever lived, our sisters and brothers, a number impossible to count enjoying ecstasy, are in raptures of delight.

This is the feast of All the Saints. Some have been canonized, others - maybe the first 'hundred and forty four thousand', and yet others who had been our heroes, but all those God has made, good and bad alike are redeemed!

Not only the acknowledged who have had statues made of them, but also those who have lived unnoticed, - all have a place in the choir. The humble, gentle and sad, those who forgive and the peacemakers, as well as the ones who mourn that violence is used to solve problems, are all gathered and comfortable in God's company.

We are encouraged to join in the song "Lord God of Hosts. Heaven and earth are full of your glory. Hosanna in the Highest! Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord. Hosanna in the highest."
