

PEACE THOUGHTS

To be saints is not a privilege for the few, but a vocation for everyone.
Saints are not supermen/women, nor were they born perfect.
When they recognised God's love, they followed it and served others.
Pope Francis

What we would like to do is change the world - make it a little simpler for people to feed, clothe, and shelter themselves as God intended them to do. And, by fighting for better conditions, by crying out unceasingly for the rights of the workers, the poor, of the destitute - the rights of the worthy and the unworthy poor, in other words - we can, to a certain extent, change the world; we can work for this oasis, this little cell of joy and peace in a harried world. We can throw our pebble in the pond and be confident that its ever-widening circle will reach around the world.
There is nothing we can do but love. Dear God, please enlarge our hearts to love each other, to love our neighbour, to love our enemy as our friend.
Dorothy Day

The saints are our brothers and sisters, calling us to become like them.
Henri Nouwen

GOSPEL THOUGHTS Matthew 5: 1-12

"...a huge number, impossible to count of people of every nation, race, tribe and language...." God loves everyone even those who betrayed and executed him. St Paul says that 'nothing can come between us and the love of God'. Romans 8.
'God chose us before we were born, 'Ephesians Chap 1.

Today we celebrate that God's love wins. We are all 'Heirs of God and co-heirs with Christ'.

Happy are those who are aware they are full of God's loving plan. They are the poor in spirit, the gentle, those who mourn, those who hunger and thirst for what is right, the ones who show mercy, the pure in heart, the peacemakers, those who are persecuted in the cause of right.

Where do we fit in this crowd?

COP26 United Nations Climate Conference

This week, from 1st - 12th November, the UK will host the largest gathering of world leaders ever to take place on British soil. This will take place in Glasgow. Each one of us is responsible for the world we leave our children and grandchildren. One simple and effective action would be to let the Prime Minister know YOU are concerned. Sign the online petition NOW. Cafod.org.uk/reclaim.

The Catholic Bishops of England and Wales have sent us this prayer.

A prayer for COP26 Climate Talks

Loving God,

We praise your name with all you have created. You are present in the whole universe, and in the smallest of creatures. We acknowledge the responsibilities you have placed up on us as stewards of your creation. May the Holy Spirit inspire all political leaders at COP26 as they seek to embrace the changes needed to foster a more sustainable society. Instil in them the courage and gentleness to implement fairer solutions for the poorest and most vulnerable and commit their nations to the care of Our Common Home.

We ask this through Our Lord Jesus Christ your Son.
Amen.

Talk about a plan of action for your family at home.
DO something for the families who will live after us.

Precautions

Remain careful.

For those you love and meet.

STAY CAUTIOUS!

The guidance for Places of Worship.

You can leave home to attend/visit a place of worship.

If you do, you should follow the protocol of Hands, Face and Space. There should be no clustering.

Let us all work to avoid another Lock Down.
