

PEACE THOUGHTS

'Get up off your knees!

Come out of your churches, your mosques, your temples!
God can hear your prayers for peace and justice in this world, just fine!
When are we finally going to realise that humanity is the solution to inhumanity? When will we finally understand that we are all drops in the same ocean, hurting together, healing together, hoping together?

So, don't just pray for hands to heal the hurting:

pray with hands that are healing the hurting.

Don't just pray for arms to help the helpless:

pray with arms that are helping the helpless.

Don't just pray for feet that are responding to need:

pray on feet that are responding to need.

Don't just pray for someone to do something.

Be that someone who does something!

Don't just pray for answers!

Be the answer!

GOSPEL THOUGHTS Luke 23: 35-43

Part of bullying is ridicule. Skitting and mockery are the tools of those who want to hurt. How to resist using such weapons is difficult and only possible if we firmly believe in the opposite; that is to insist in encouragement and hope as the only way to be in healthy relationships.

They are laughing at the 'King' on the cross. The crowd, the soldiers and one of the criminals poke fun at the impotence of the 'King'. But there is fellowship amid the hatred. The other criminal and Jesus are in conversation. The other thief uses Jesus' name and clearly trusts he is a 'King'. In this encounter there is hope and dignity.

To be part of this King's kingdom, all that comes from our heart and mouth should be lifegiving and not hurting.
