

PEACE THOUGHTS

'All of us who are baptized are missionary disciples.
We are called to become the living Gospel in our world.'

'The Gospel calls individual Christians to live lives
of honesty, integrity and concern for the common good,
to create circles of integrity..., networks of solidarity
which can expand to embrace and transform society
by their prophetic witness.'

Pope Francis

To be silent in the face of injustice is to be complicit.
Silence means consent.

Elie Wiesel once wrote: 'We must take sides.
Neutrality helps the oppressor, never the victim.
Silence encourages the tormentor,
never the tormented.'

'Whatever you're doing to bring about justice, keep doing it.
Do it even when it doesn't seem to work.
Do it when it's long and hard and boring.
As the poet Ovid wrote. 'Dripping water hollows out stone,
not through force, but through persistence.'

GOSPEL THOUGHTS Mark 6: 7-13

Sent out on a message to buy milk, a child insists on taking the new scooter. A teenager will go to visit grandma, but only when they can dress in a particular 'T' shirt. Going on holiday, we always pack more than we need. There is a lot of clutter in our life;
non-essential concerns.

Jesus is on a mission and his friends are encouraged to spread the truth that love
and forgiveness is more important than cash and status.

Amos was sent further than his life as a shepherd.
Jesus calls his apprentices beyond anything that isn't essential to the task. The message is the good news that all we meet are to be loved. We are called to be loving.
Christians go out with that message, careful of clutter.
