

PEACE THOUGHTS

THE BAPTISM OF JESUS

He's grown, that Baby - not that most people have noticed.

He still looks the same, lying there in the straw
with animals and shepherds looking on.

He's safe there, locked in that moment where time met eternity.

Reality, of course, is different.

He grew up, astonished people with his insight,
, disturbed them with ideas that stretched them into new maturity.

Some found him much too difficult to cope with and nailed him down to fit their narrow minds.

We are more subtle.

We keep him helpless, refuse to let him be the man he is,
adore him as the Christmas Baby,
eternally unable to grow up until we set him free.

By all means, let us pause there at the stable and marvel at the miracle of his birth, but we'll never get to know, Emmanuel - God-With-Us, until we learn to find him at the inn - on the streets, in the prisons,
in the migrant hotels - a fellow-guest who shares our joys and sorrows,
the host, who is the life we celebrate.

Oh yes, he's grown, that Baby.

Will you?

Ann Lewin

GOSPEL THOUGHTS: Matthew 3: 13-17

Who was your favourite teacher? There is usually someone who sits in your memory when hundreds of others are forgotten. Parents, teachers, best friends and lovers have a great impact on us. Their personality influences us deeply and shapes our life.

John the Baptist, Isaiah and Matthew have all been deeply impressed by the SPIRIT. The spirit came down on Jesus and does so on every baptised person too.

We discover the Spirit, which is God's wisdom, imagination, and energy,
as we hear the readings of this feast
day.

Life, love, patience, courage,
knowledge of God, wisdom, energy and reconciliation are God's plan and are some of the characteristics of Jesus.
They are God's gifts to all the baptised. As Jesus now starts his adult life, so should we.
