Spring Term, 23rd January

Uniform Spotlight

On Monday 26th January, we will have our first 'Uniform spotlight' of the year. On this day, teachers will be checking the correct uniform is being worn in class as well as no jewellery!

Please ensure your child is in correct uniform, using the guide below:

Children should wear a navy jumper or cardigan, white shirt/polo shirt and school tie, paired with grey or black trousers, shorts, or a navy skirt or pinafore.

Black shoes for all pupils.

There is no need to buy branded items - plain, affordable versions from the supermarket are perfectly fine. Please speak to myself or Mrs Birch should you need support with uniform. Thank you.

Mrs Gordon

Reminder: If your child attends clubs outside of school, you can purchase a passport to collect their Children's University credits from the office for £3.00

Year 4's visit to the Cathedral

The Inspirations visited the cathedral to take part in a beautiful Christingle service. The children were great ambassadors for the school and had a wonderful time exploring the cathedral. We even got to ring the bell at the start of afternoon prayer time!
