

CHRISTMAS PEACE THOUGHTS

'Blessed is the season which engages the whole world in a conspiracy of love.'
Hamilton Wright Mabie

*Christmas is the celebration of small things, barely noticeable things.
It is Jesus in a manger, the child who will grow into the voice of God that is heard around the world and will change it! Maybe we've never wanted to face the implications of the Christ-Child's birth for ourselves.
Maybe it has been so well masked, that we don't realise the demands it makes on us now, It's time to grow beyond fairy-tale-spirituality and face our own part in the drama, and how, in our own time, we are the deciders of what this birth will bring.
It's time to realize that Christ's birth is meant to change us all - to make us the bringers of hope, justice and peace to others.*
Sr. Joan Chittister OSB

*'We need Christmas more than ever this year — not in spite of injustice, but because of it. We need the incarnation of Love in our midst.
We need the Prince of Peace to arrive in our world, in our country, in our justice system and in our own hearts.'*
Sarah Thebarge, No Justice, No Christmas?

GOSPEL THOUGHTS: Luke 2 & John 1

The smallest flicker of light in a dark place draws our attention. A small spark in the gloom is a chance of hope when looking for the way. Arriving as a tiny baby, a human being that needs help, God comes inviting us to take care of the plan.

God is with us, Emmanuel, because Mary and Joseph gave their bodies and whole life to cooperate with God. Baby Jesus is God's way of arriving in our moment of history. We are to do a 'Mary' or 'Joseph' in our time of darkness. Our smallest glow or bigger flash will enable God's plan to brighten up 2026. We must be the light in our dark time.

COMPANIONS FOR EUCHARISTIC MINISTERS

Safeguarding regulations insist that Eucharistic Ministers do not visit people alone. We are therefore asking for people who are not Eucharistic Ministers but who have some time to give to this work each month to consider this role. Accompanying our Eucharistic Ministers will be a way of serving those in our community who are unable to attend church but wish to receive the sacrament. Please let Father know if you can be part of this.
